BURLINGTON WON

Defeated Oakville On the New Hockey Rink

Burlington, Feb. 22.—A very exciting hockey match took place at the new skating rink on Saturday night between Oakville and Burlington teams, resulting in a victory for the home team by six goals to three. The rink was crowded, there being about 800 people present to see the match.

H. Blair, the manager of the local boys, looked after the comfort of the visiting team, and all the affairs of the rink.

Bert Greenleaf, the man who was hurt last week while shifting a building belonging to Coates & Sons, doing nothing and his wounds are healing well.

The cold was intense here this morning and below zero weather still prevails.

A list of preachers for the Lenten services of St. Luke's Church is given as follows: Dean Abbott, Canon Hewitt, Canon Forrester, Rev. H. H. Brown and Rev. D. Benson, all of Hamilton.

St. Luke's church has never been so crowded and the parishioners of St. Luke's church have been highly honored by the preachers taking part in their Lenten services.

TIGER MINSTRELS

Wm Melroy Has a Hand In Show Again.

The Tigers have mustered no end of talent for their big minstrel show to be held at the Grand on Feb. 11, 12 and 13. The rehearsals are well attended, and 80 people will take part, 25 of them being young ladies. Holly Shepherd is making great progress with the amateurs, and finds it much easier to get the boys down to business than when he is playing grand old time to the amateurs, and finds it much easier to get the boys down to business than when he is playing grand old time to the amateurs.

TEMPLE'S SUNDAY SERVICE

At the service of the Good Templars' Mission, held in the Ancient Order of United Workmen Hall, James street north, yesterday afternoon, an encouraging increase in the attendance was noted. The support for the coming year was presented, and was supported by Mrs. H. W. Walman, the chaplain, who read the dedicatory prayer. Mrs. Beattie Brown rendered a solo "Face to Face" and a most delightful accompaniment was given by the accompanists with her usual skill.

The speaker was the Rev. W. E. Gilchrist, B.A. In the course of a lengthy and most inspiring gospel temperance address, the speaker expressed the view that the support for the coming year was almost all the life and evils existing in the world, and that the only way to escape could long remain in the liquor.

At the close of the address, which was highly appreciated by all present, the president called upon John T. Dwyer, of the distinguished Grand Chaplain of Canada, who was favoring a mission with a visit, for a few minutes, which were likewise appreciated.

A most pleasing feature of the service yesterday was the large attendance of members from the various lodges of the Grand Chapter.

Next Sunday afternoon the minister from the West will give a mission will be held for men.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

Mr. Nat Goodwin, who has not been seen here in some years, will appear at the Grand to-night in the farcical comedy, "Never Say Die," now the reigning success in London, where it is being presented by Charles Hawtrey. "Never Say Die" is a story in three acts, the acts of Dionysius Woodbury, millionaire bachelor, ordained by the most prominent physicians to die in a brief space of time. He forthwith invades himself into a series of complications all contingent on his approaching death to work out right. And to say the audience enjoy the unfolding of the tangle is to put it mildly. Margaret Mowbray, who has taken her place among the causers of the stage, is the leading lady, and the other important roles are in the hands of Gladys Wilson, Christine Lambart, Clifford Brough, Dora Cough, Lester Marsh, Ed. Mayles, Walter Clouston and Master Biddood.

"POO OF MY HEART"

"Poo of My Heart," that delightful comedy that was so well received here last fall, returns to the Grand to-morrow night for three performances. Mr. Matthei, the author, in "Poo," has created a most unusual character. She is a sharp tongue, but she is a laugh, and a sense of humor that is evident in only one country—Ireland. She is a girl of the people, and is a very attractive, and has a wonderful ability to read human nature. SUDDEN DEATH

Overtook Woman In Corridor of Local Theatre.

Death came suddenly to Mrs. H. Russell, on Saturday, as she was on her way, with her husband and a lady friend to the matinee at a local theatre. They had just reached the corridor of the theatre when Mrs. Russell complained of feeling ill. Dr. Theodore Coleman was called, but he found her pulse was "lastly unresponsive," but before he arrived the unfortunate lady had passed away. The deceased was 36 years of age and is survived by her husband, Mrs. Russell, who lives at 546 Barton street east, where she resided. The funeral will take place there on Tuesday afternoon.

FISKE OTTAWA

"In Old Public," the romantic comedy that will be presented by Fiske Ottaway at the Grand again on Saturday night, is a play of a period in which the Emerald Isle was pre-eminently in sports and parties. GRIFPIN'S

"The vaudeville and burlesque film offering of Grifpin's, three days of this week, commencing today, at the Griffin Theatre, are the best yet presented at this popular place of amusement. Manager Malone, "What we have held," and in order to maintain the Griffin record, the Griffin management can afford to present such big programmes at such low prices as an unbroken record.

THE TEMPLE

"The Temple this week offers a pleasing and varied vaudeville entertainment, featuring Charlie Richardson, a well known comedian, in his songs, dances and stories. Although Richardson has not been here for some time, his reputation that he requires no introduction. The Jugglers' troupe, four in number, and Ryan and Lee, clown dispensers, are other big attractions. The bill also includes Kallio, a well known comedian, in his songs, dances and stories. Although Richardson has not been here for some time, his reputation that he requires no introduction.

HARD FIGHT PROMISED

to increase the wage, but to reduce it.

May Allen and Controller Cooper will be the members to oppose the increase to 25 cents an hour. Controller Gardner and Morris will strongly support it. The Controller's duty will be to them. Just how the aldermen individually will go remains to be seen.

The Mayor declared the morning that he would oppose the proposed increase, and gave reasons for his opposition, declaring that if the rate was fixed at 25 cents it would mean more difficulty in procuring manufacturing concerns to come to Hamilton, and also that if the wage were increased a great number of the men employed would be reduced considerably.

This would mean that the 22-cent men would be out of employment, because if the minimum were increased men those receiving higher wages would also want an increase. His Worship declared that he would not support the increase, and that he would support the 25-cent men.

His Worship summed the matter up by saying that the 25-cent men consisted of men not worth more, unable to do a good day's work, in fact, it seemed as if they were a liability, needing employment and not worth the regular pay.

Charles W. Murphy is Out of Organized Baseball

Cub Owner Sold Team on Saturday to Charles Taft, of Cincinnati--Other Ball News.

Feb. 22.—Negotiations with a syndicate of Chicago sportsmen for the purchase of the struggling interest in the Chicago National League baseball club from Charles W. Murphy, of Cincinnati, was announced today.

James A. Cugini, William Hale Thompson and Chas. A. McCulloch, who represent the syndicate, will hold a conference today and an offer is expected to be made to Mr. Taft, who purchased the club Saturday from Charles Murphy.

The same syndicate attempted to purchase the Cubs from Murphy once before, but it was rumored that he might retire from organized baseball, because of controversies resulting from his discharge of Johnny Evers as manager of the Cubs. However, Murphy refused to sell his interest at that time, saying the Cubs were not for sale.

According to a statement made yesterday by Murphy, Mr. Taft had purchased half a million shares of the thirty-three shares of Cub stock. "I started in baseball with a cash string, and now I'm worth more than a million dollars," said Murphy. He said costantly a great deal of money, but he is not a millionaire, but he is a millionaire in baseball. He said he had a great deal of money, but he is not a millionaire, but he is a millionaire in baseball. He said he had a great deal of money, but he is not a millionaire, but he is a millionaire in baseball.

Murphy did not care to discuss his controversies with President Johnson of the American League, whom he charged with trying to shut him out of organized baseball, or with other clubs who have opposed him. Murphy's career in baseball has lasted over a quarter of a century.

A meeting of the new directors of the club, they he called by Mr. Taft, for today or tomorrow to elect a new club president, according to Mr. Murphy. The club will be transferred to the new owner at the meeting.

Cincinnati, Feb. 22.—The big boat was applied to Charles W. Murphy Saturday evening, after a long conference between Governor French and Charles P. Tott, Mr. Murphy will sell his interest in the Chicago National League, and will retire from the presidency of the club and as a director of the National League. Murphy, in a lengthy statement issued after the conference, declared that a "new club" would be organized, and that he would be able to agree to all the terms of the new club.

Harry Ackerman, one of the stockholders of the Chicago National League, participated in the conference, which resulted in a Murphy resignation. Murphy's resignation means that he will not only quit baseball, but also quit all of organized baseball, in the future, he will be a spectator.

Efforts to get Murphy out of the club have been made by other club owners, and a meeting of the National League was held at the meeting of the National League, which Murphy declared that he would not be a member of the National League, and that he would not be a member of the National League.

Herman's information Mr. Ackerman either accepted or declined the offer, and he is under consideration.

Feb. 22.—Joe Wood, president of the Brooklyn Federal League Club, has returned from Chicago, where he made a vain attempt to sign Jack Stahl, who is now a member of the Boston Red Sox, as manager for the Brooklyn Federal League Club, next season.

The negotiations between Mr. Stahl and the Brooklyn club are still in progress, and it is expected that Stahl will be signed by the Brooklyn club, next season.
